We will also share highlights of our achievements this past year.

Community Labor United (CLU) is an ongoing partnership begun by the Greater Boston Labor Council in 2005, to unite the strongest base-building community organizations and unions in Greater Boston, with the mission of building power and a voice for our communities. Our work is needed now more than ever. By supporting our anniversary event, you sustain our organizing and help us achieve our goals.

The generous support of all our sponsors will be acknowledged in our event program, shown repeatedly on rotating slideshows throughout the event, and will be featured on CLU's website, in our virtual newsletter, and in our social media.
